

Vakassia "V.J." Niles

Career Strategist, Entrepreneur, & Speaker

Having transitioned careers through 4 industries, Vakassia J. Niles is able to connect with her audience and help them chart their career paths and navigate hard times. With over 15 years of experience in presentations and training, she is able to provide knowledge to a wide audience ranging from students to executives.

V.J. is the Immediate Past President of the NYC Professional Chapter of the National Association of Women MBAs, has been the Webmaster and Chair of the Economic Development Committee for the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Suffolk County Chapter, Inc. V.J. has been published in MBA Women magazine, is a contributing author to "Just Me: The Business Woman's Personal Branding Guide" and career related blogs. She frequently speaks for youth and women organizations regarding career strategy, career development, STEM careers, branding and networking tips.

Speaking Topics

Take Action in Your Career

Setting career goals and creating an action plan are vital to a job seeker's success. Be taking through a step by step process of how to create that plan with goals that are obtainable and matter.

Define your Brand, Redefine your Success

Building a personal brand helps you define your success. Whether it be your career or your business knowing what you want and how to build a thriving brand is vital. Promote your skills and translate them into a way that will make you have the type of success you want next.

Networking for Career Growth

Networking is essential for movement but it can be tedious; learn how to network with ease, cultivate relationships and build opportunities.

Panasonic

What others say

VJ Niles is a premier member of GSB 360 Network and valued partner of the Touro College Graduate School of Business. She is a true professional, visionary and innovator. Her experience, ethics, leadership and natural presentation skills combine to create the great Career Coach that she is. VJ's "Take Action in Your Career," presentation is extremely informative for professionals who are looking expand their careers. I strongly recommend VJ to anyone looking to get their professional life headed in the right direction.

-Kevin McCorry, Co-Director of GSB 360 Network Touro College

Career Strategist, Entrepreneur, People Architect, Author & Speaker

Book Today

vjniles@thenilesgroup.com * 631-664-2380